The Wenger Group Announces Promotions, Changes in Key Leadership Positions

Rheems, PA (April 20, 2018) – As part of our ongoing succession planning, The Wenger Group is pleased to announce several recent promotions.

Linda Lownsbery has been promoted to Vice President Human Resources. A resident of Elizabethtown, Linda has 19 years of service with the company. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Marketing, and International Business from Elizabethtown College and a Graduate Certificate in Training and Development from Penn State.

David Glock has been promoted to Chief Procurement Officer at Nutrify, LLC, a division of The Wenger Group. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Animal Science from Penn State University and lives in Mifflin, PA.

Nick Szmyd was promoted to Director of Information Technology. A resident of York, Nick has 13 years of service with the company in various roles. Nick graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a Master of Science in Computer Science and from Saint Joseph's University with a Master's Degree in Business Intelligence.

Tim Appleby has been promoted to Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer. Tim will provide vision and guidance to both the Finance team and the Information Technology team in his new role. A resident of Lititz, Tim has a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and is a Certified Public Accountant.

"We've enjoyed almost 75 years of success and growth, and these recent leadership changes will help prepare us for continued prosperity," noted President and CEO, F. Barry Shaw.

The Wenger Group is a leading family-owned agricultural products and services organization, which includes Wenger Feeds, Nutrify, and Dutchland Farms. With over 300 team members and seven feed milling locations in two states, the company is a regional provider of poultry and swine feeds, performance ingredient solutions, niche market eggs, and allied services in the Mid-Atlantic Region.
