The Wenger Group, Inc. and Risser Grain, LLC Announce Expanded Business Relationship

Rheems, PA (August 28, 2019) - Phil Rohrbaugh, Chief Executive Officer of The Wenger Group, Inc., and Brent Risser, President of Risser Grain, LLC, have jointly announced an expanded business relationship.

Effective September 1, 2019, The Wenger Group, through its subsidiary, Wenger Feeds, LLC, will operate the feed mill located at Risser Grain's Martinsburg, PA location. In addition, Wenger Feeds' employees at the Martinsburg Mill will support Risser Grain's grain operations at this location. This mill has historically been operated for Risser Grain by a third party for a number of years and this arrangement will be ending in August 2019.

Rohrbaugh explained, "The Wenger Group, Inc. and Risser Grain, LLC have enjoyed a close business and strategic relationship for many years with Wenger Feeds, LLC sourcing ingredients to manufacture feed through the grain marketing operations of Risser."

Rohrbaugh and Risser expressed enthusiasm for this expanded business relationship. Rohrbaugh indicated that the expanded relationship, "Provides a solution to needed incremental manufacturing capacity for our growing customer feed demands," and Risser commented that the expanded relationship further strengthens the relationship with a key ingredient customer.

The Wenger Group, Inc. is a leading 75-year-old family-owned agricultural products and services organization, which includes Wenger Feeds, LLC, Nutrify, LLC, and Dutchland Farms, LLC. With over 300 team members and nine feed milling locations in two states, the company is a regional provider of poultry and swine feeds, performance ingredient solutions, niche market eggs, and allied services in the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Risser Grain, LLC is a leading 45-year-old family-owned grain dealer of corn, wheat, soybeans, and barley as well as an exclusive distributor of custom mixed fertilizer.

Both The Wenger Group and Risser Grain are family-owned businesses, which are part of the Mid-Atlantic Agribusiness sector.
