Eleven Winners of 2024 Wenger Group Scholarship Announced

RHEEMS, PA (May 30, 2024) – The Wenger Group Scholarship Foundation is pleased to announce the 2024 winners of the annual scholarship.

The 2024 recipients are: Mason Boyer of York; Jacob Cramer of Lititz; Brennan Emery of Montgomery; Alanna Falk of York; Brock Hammaker of Mount Joy; Nicole Leniger of Quakertown; Elijah Madara of Catawissa; Emma Madara of Catawissa; Joel Molina of Telford; Cole Winters of Elizabethtown; and Garvin Winters of Elizabethtown.

Mason Boyer of York is studying business administration at Elizabethtown College. Jacob Cramer of Lititz will be a sophomore at Penn State University studying engineering. Alanna “Ally” Falk will be a senior at West Chester this fall studying political science. Nicole Leniger of Quakertown will be entering her junior year at Bloomsburg University studying health sciences. Elijah Madara of Catawissa will continue his studies at Pennsylvania College of Technology studying auto mechanics. Emma Madara of Catawissa will be a sophomore studying Animal Science at Penn State University in the fall.

Applicants Brenna Emery, Brock Hammaker, Joel Molina, Cole Winters, and Gavin Winters earned first time awards. Brenna Emery graduated from Montgomery Area Junior/Senior High School and will be a welding and fabrication technology student at Triangle Tech in the fall. Brock Hammaker graduated from Donegal High School and is entering Bloomsburg University in the fall to study electronics engineering. Joel Molina is entering his junior year at Penn State University studying marketing. Cole Winters graduated from Elizabethtown Area High School and will be a student at Millersville University in the fall. Gavin Winters graduated from Donegal High School and will be a student at Elizabethtown College in the fall.

“We have received applications from students pursuing a wide variety of degrees from healthcare to political science to auto mechanics and animal science. We awarded scholarships to eleven students this year including six repeat recipients,” noted Lynda Limpert, Chair of the Board of Directors of The Wenger Group Scholarship Foundation. The Foundation awarded $55,000 in scholarships this year.

Individual awards are determined by the Board of Directors of The Wenger Group Scholarship Foundation. Awards are available for use at accredited colleges or universities, community colleges, as well as trade and technical schools.

Launched in 2015, The Foundation awards academic scholarships exclusively to eligible full-time team members of The Wenger Group companies. “Our team members are our greatest asset, and we appreciate their dedication to The Wenger Group and are delighted to aid their children in attaining their future goals,” noted Barry Shaw, Executive Chairman of the Board of The Wenger Group.
